School's Annual

The Torrance Torch for 1948, largest local high school annual yet published, was at the bindery today being readied for delivery next week to the graduating class of '48.

Dedicated to Principal Lloyd W. Waller, the annual is profusely illustrated and follows the modern trend in its make-up. It is printed on heavy book paper with an imitation leather cover.

The publication is the product of a committee of 14 students, with Nancy Whyte as editor and Barbara Lisman as business manager. Photographs in the book were taken by Dixie Lee and Jack Baldwin.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Editor:
The members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club wish to express their appreciation for the wonderful help given them by the Torrance Herald during their recent Queen Contest.

Success of the project was due greatly to the support given by the paper.

We wish to express special thanks to Mrs. Mary Vonderahe and the Torrance Herald Staff.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lee A. McCoy
General Chairman

Editor Torrance Herald:
I wish to thank you for placing the people's petition of protest of the menacing "sand farms" on the front page of your progressive newspaper last week.

I only hope that any citizen of this city who did not read it, will get another issue and proceed at once to the following places, signing their name on this petition, thus backing the workers who, after all, are trying to make Torrance a more pleasant place for home owners.

I am looking forward to a mass listing of signatures as soon as possible, especially from the northeast side of Torrance boulevard, and those living on the southwest side of Torrance boulevard, where these dust storms must be a hazard.

Petitions are placed with the Chamber of Commerce at 1345 El Prado, W. E. Bowen's insurance office, 1827 Post avenue and with Joseph N. Burton, real estate office at 2468 Torrance boulevard, Torrance.

Anyone wishing to help with this petition, please get in touch with me as soon as possible.

Dear Editor:
On May 15 I had the pleasure of taking part in a parade in Torrance.

From my position in the line of march I was able to observe many things. First, that it was a good parade, second that a large crowd turned out to see it. All in all I felt it was a good thing. A credit to the community and to those that spent many hours of hard work making it possible.

But the one big thing I did see was the fine work of the

observe and feel that something should be done about it—as a whole people don't seem to be interested in paying respect to the flag of this fine country of ours. I think there were only five or six times when "Old Glory" passed any point along the route, which would only mean five or six interruptions from watching the rest of the show. Now that is asking very little for something that should mean so much to everyone of us, especially at this time when there is so much unrest among nations and the people all over the world.

In closing I would like to quote from my son's "Handbook For Boys," under "Foot Requirements Number 2," pages 49 to 76. On page 58, I quote:

"When the flag is passing on parade or review, the spectators should rise and stand with their hats placed over their heart until the flag has passed. Women should salute by placing the right hand over their heart."

Thank you,
Tom M. Jones
